MVA3 EVO

MULTILANE SACHET

Distributed by Matrix the MVA3 EVO is the best small sized solution in the market. This machine provides flexibility in the creation of sachets and allows greater accessibility for easier maintenance.

The new EVO design works with reels up to 300 mm wide. The new structure is compact and has easy accessibility for maintenance, the new design also offers an unwind system with integrated auto-alignment, splicing table, film compensator, integrated coding system (Laser, Inkjet, TTO), adjustable vertical cutting blades, powerful horizontal sealer, and powder fillers assembled in a mobile platform for cleaning process.

Designed for small and medium production, the MVA3 EVO is extremely flexible with the ability to package dosing powders, granulates, solids, liquids, and pasty products with ease.
